News Briefs

Pie Crust Deadline

The holidays are coming, and the deadline to buy pie crusts before the Bazaar is Thursday, September 27. Buy your delicious homemade pie crusts in the church office on Monday–Thursday, between 9:00am and 1:00 pm—just $17.50 for 10 balls of dough or $25.00 for 10 crusts in pie tins.

National Night Out

We are waiting to hear back from the Nacogdoches Police Department before we firm up our plans, but we hope to have a Block Party for National Night Out @6:00 pm on Tuesday, October 2. It's always a fun time of eating hot dogs and snacks with our neighbors as law enforcement officers stop by to build relationships...and let children explore their vehicles!

Trunk or Treat Candy

Kelly Allensworth is challenging everyone to bring a bag of individually wrapped candy to church each Sunday until October 28. Let's all pitch in to keep down the cost to those providing their trunks! Look for the Halloween tub in Memorial Hall.

Canning Jars Wanted

Becky Byars is looking for a few wide-mouth quart jars. If you have extras, please bring them to the church kitchen.

Pastor's Corner

Are you ready? September is here! School is back in session and once again we are experiencing the excitement of the return of our SFA students. Just a reminder, when you are driving, remember to be patient and understanding of pedestrians and drivers, since they may not have a clue where they are going! Isn't it nice to know that we do; I mean more than driving in Nac. We know where to go on Wednesday nights! Yes, this is another pitch for Wonderful Wednesday, which starts on Wednesday, September 5th. Coming together in fellowship sharing a meal is not only Methodist tradition; it was the primary tradition and requirement in the early Christian church. Paul and the other apostles talk about the importance of continuing to grow in our faith. In addition to attending Sunday School and/or worship, we need to be immersed in the word in a variety of ways as individuals and with a small group of believers. John Wesley felt very strongly that we should be held accountable by fellow believers for the purpose of not straying from God, and to keep God first in our daily lives. We are models for the children and youth of this church; they need to learn from us that this is what the daily practices of a disciple of Jesus Christ look like.

Parents, please encourage your children and youth to attend Wonderful Wednesday. This is also a great time to invite children and their families you know, to join us. Please support our teachers and staff who spend time planning for each Wednesday.

Have a blessed and fruitful September! –Pastor Carol

Thank you!

Once again you went above and beyond with generous encouragement for the teachers and staff of Nettie Marshall. Our back-to-school luncheon was well attended and everyone expressed their thanks for the delicious food, gratitude for the school supplies, and joy for receiving the precious pumpkins courtesy of Billie and Sandy. Thank you, Perritte, for making this outreach ministry a special and positive new beginning for the school year. Please continue to keep the students and teachers at Nettie Marshall in your prayers.

–Mary Ann Miles
